Pending the call of the yeas and nays, when the votes of Messrs. Done, Hughlett and M'Mahon of Allegany, were called for, they rose in their respective places and severally asked to be excused from voting; and on the question being put in each case, it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. M'Mahon of Baltimore city, Mr. Gale was excused from further service as a member of the committee on ways and means; and the speaker thereupon announced the appointment of Mr. Grason to supply the vacancy thereby occasioned.

The bills from the senate, entitled, An act to repeal an
